

Resources for Dealing with War and Terrorism

A Collection of Resources - I have NOT Used all of these, many have been sent to me as recommended sites - Check them out and feel free to share them with others!

Gail

www.GailLovely.com

Gail@GailLovely.com

News Feeds

(designed for kids, but check for appropriateness in your setting)

from Yahoooligans:

<http://dailynews.yahoo.com/fc3/yahoooligans/middleeast/>

from time for Kids:

<http://www.timeforkids.com/TFK/specials/iraq/0,8805,424876,00.html>

from CNN - Student News:

<http://fyi.cnn.com/fyi/>

from MSNBC - Pencil News:

http://www.pencilnews.com/index.php?fuseaction=home.DisplayStory&id=377&Section=Top\_News

Resources for Teachers and Others Who Help Children and Teens:

from the National Association of School Psychologists:

<http://www.nasponline.org/NEAT/unsettlingtimes.html>

from PBS for Parents:

<http://www.pbs.org/parents/issuesadvice/war/>

from the University of Minnesota:

<http://www.cyfc.umn.edu/publications/newsreleases/3-10-03nr.html>

from New York University Child Study Center:

<http://www.aboutourkids.org/articles/war.html>

from the Family Education Network:

<http://www.familyeducation.com/article/0,1120,20-6055,00.html>

from the Families and Work Institute:

<http://salute.familiesandwork.org/teacherguide.pdf>

from Purdue - research and support:

<http://www.ces.purdue.edu/terrorism/>

from Educators for Social Responsibility some lessons and resources:

<http://www.esrnational.org/sp/we/world.htm>

from Scholastic (appropriate for older children too):

<http://teacher.scholastic.com/scholasticnews/indepth/war-iraq/news/index.asp?article=0319>

from the National Mental Health Association:

<http://www.nmha.org/reassurance/childrenDealwithWar.cfm>

from Children Now - talking about the news (generic, but good too):

<http://www.childrennow.org/television/twk-news.htm>

from the National Center for Children Exposed to Violence:

http://www.nccev.org/docs/children\_warT.pdf

from FEMA:

<http://www.fema.gov/kids/terrism.htm>

for kids from Kids Health.org:

http://www.kidshealth.org/kid/misc/terrorist\_attacks.html

Background and Information on Iraq - for Adults First

From the Librarians Index to the Internet

<http://lii.org/warandpeace>

Background from Library of Congress:

<http://lcweb2.loc.gov/frd/cs/igtoc.html>

Pictures of Iraq and More:

<http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-srv/photo/world/iraq/index.htm>

For Youngest Learners:

from Zero to Three:

<http://www.zerotothree.org/coping/>

from Sesame Workshop:

<http://www.sesameworkshop.org/parents/advice/article.php?contentId=8354163>

from Mr. Rogers (PBS):

<http://pbskids.org/rogers/parents/war.html>

from NAEYC:

<http://www.naeyc.org/resources/eyly/1998/22.htm>

Please also consider ideas and resources about Heroes and Brave Memories on my website:

<http://www.GailLovely.com>

select Resources and there you will find many resources including "Brave Memories and Heroes".

Please feel free to distribute these resources to those who can be helped with them.